National Portrait Gallery of Australia - Annual Procurement Plan (2018-19)

The Gallery's purpose is to increase the understanding and appreciation of the Australian people - their identity, history, culture, creativity and diversity - through portraiture. The Gallery houses the national collection of portraits of Australians reflecting the breadth and energy of Australian culture and endeavour. Subjects in the collection are individuals who have, and who will continue to shape our nation and define our collective persona. As a member of a group of national collecting institutions, the NPGA is unique in its exclusive use of portraiture to explore Australian culture, history, individual achievement and identity. The Gallery is located in Canberra, ACT.

All planned procurement which may be open for Multi Agency Access are identified as such, and all open approaches to the market will be advertised on Austender. All request documentation for open approaches to the market will be available electronically from Austender when the approach to the market takes place.
